From Geneva-Airport or Zurich Airport:

Take the train from the Airport to Lausanne. You would have then to walk or to take the bus to reach the station of le Flon. There, you will be able to take the metro M11 for EPFL.

Link for train timetable:   http://www.cff.ch/
Link for Metro timetable:  http://www.epfl.ch/tsol/

Should you need any help please call us:

Muriel Bardet 021 693 76 95 (LTHC-LICOS) INR 137
Yvonne Huskie 021 693 76 94 (LTHI) INR 133
Françoise Behn (LCM) 021 693 76 62 (LCM) INR 133
We are here in building INR 1st floor
Departure of Metro Bus shuttle to Lausanne Flon every 8 minutes approx.

Station Lausanne-Flon

Alpha-Palmiers hotel

Lausanne Main Train Station
From Geneva-Airport to Lausanne by train

After passing through customs, turn to your left and walk through to the end of the building. Go through the revolving door, which will take you straight into the railway station. Buy your ticket for Lausanne at the counter on the opposite side of the hall or at the automatic machine.

The one-way train ticket in 2nd class costs: chf 24.--
1st class costs: chf 40.—

For Lausanne, check on the departure panel above each track. The journey to Lausanne lasts approx. 45 minutes (all trains stop first at the Geneva Main Station)

You can find the train schedule on http://www.sbb.ch/en/index.htm

Travel information from Lausanne main train station to the EPFL

Exit the Station in the direction of the Place de la Gare and take the metro bus in the direction of Ouchy. Get off the metro at the stop LAUSANNE FLON (= 1 stop).

At this stop, you will see on your left another metro called the TSOL. Take the TSOL in the direction of RENENS CFF and get off at the EPFL station (= 9 stops, about 14 minutes).

Additional information

° There is a TSOL departure every 5 or 10 minutes depending on the time of the day.
° The price of the ticket is CHF 2.80 valid for one hour and for both trains (metro & TSOL).
° The trip, from the Lausanne train station to the EPFL stop, lasts about 20 to 25 minutes. You can add about 3 to 5 minutes walking to get to our building.